Title I is a federally funded program to help students narrow the achievement gap within the classroom by providing educational opportunities for all children to meet the state's academic achievement standards through effective use of scientifically-based research reform strategies.

Title I School Wide Programs provide supplemental instruction for students in kindergarten through grade five at Dryden, Elk Knob, St.Charles, and Flatwoods Elementary Schools. Additional instructional support is provided for grades 5 through 7 at Elydale; grades six through eight at Pennington and Jonesville Middle Schools; and, grades kindergarten through grade four at Rose Hill. .

Parent and community involvement are encouraged within all Title I Programs.

The Lee County Public Schools Title I Program does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, color, religion, age, disability, or national origin in employment or in its programs and activities.
